

Suspension of services of the Cruise Train Seven Stars in Kyushu

Services of the Seven Stars in Kyushu were scheduled to resume from July 14th 2020. However, due to damage from heavy rain to rail lines and infrastructure in the Kyushu region, the resumption of services will change as below.

Currently, preparations are being made so that services can resume from the 15th of August. The route which the train will travel is currently under review, and will be announced on our home page when finalized.

We look forward to welcoming guests again on the Seven Stars, and thank guests who have been waiting for their patience and understanding.
